Uke arr. by Dan Dougherty

There's one thing that a wom-an can't live with-out,
What is it ev-'ry wom-an cer-tain-ly craves?

And that's a man! — There's one thing keeps a wom - an Ain't it a man? — What is it that makes wom - en al - ways in doubt, — And that's a man! — I'm no ex - cep - tion noth - ing but slaves? — Ain't it a man? — Ev - er since Ad - am to the rule; — I know they say — that I'm a fool. — But there's picked on Eve, — Wom - en are made — to moan and grieve. — And what one thing that I'm simp - ly craz - y a - bout, — And that's a man! is it that puts wom - en down in their graves? — Just low - down man!

CHORUS

 (Not too fast)

He's not good-look-ing, not hand-some or tall. I could-n't tell you how You would-n't like him, he's noth-in' to show. Not to be trust-ed, I p-f he made me fall. There's noth-in' to him but still and all, He's a good man to learned long a-go. Just good-for noth-in', but I don't know, He's a good man to have a-round. He's not a step-per, he can't ev-en waltz. In con-ver-sa-tion, he have a-round. When din-ner's ov-er, I turn and he's gone. I hear him sneak in astammers and halts. Poor lit-tle sweet man, with all his faults He's a good man to have along a-bout dawn. I don't say noth-in' 'cause from then on He's a good man to have around. Oh, some-times I fly off the lid. "Go this min-ute," I shout. But round. And some-times when he starts to row, I don't care if I live, But if he did, I would die with-out him. he knows how To make me for-give him.

He's not ex-act-ly my i-de-a of The per-fect lov-er from Heav-en a-bove, Bought a re-vol-ver, I don't mean for fun. I ought to shoot him for things that he's done;

But what's the diff'rence? The man you love Is a good man to have a-round!
 Can't pull the trig-ger, The son-'fa-gun! He's a good man to have a-round!
